President's Notes

The end of last month saw two very entertaining performances of Charlie & the Chocolate Factory by the Youth Theatre. Well done to everyone involved and it is great that the group will continue to meet during the autumn.

The Caucasian Chalk Circle is fast approaching which will be well worth seeing. The panto, Scrooge-The Panto is now cast and will shortly start rehearsals for the run in September. The read-through and auditions for The Business of Murder are in early September so do come along and support Andy Kay who is producing the play.

During Cowes Week we hosted Anthony Adams and his Matt Monro & Frank Sinatra Tribute Show which was very well received. In October, we will again be hosting some events of the Isle of Wight Literary Festival.

The social programme is also underway for the year with a Quiz Night on October 12th. November 23rd sees the Christmas Fayre during the day and Honest Mike's Race Night in the evening. The Christmas Party will be on December 21st. Film@Trinity Theatre starts in September with a varied programme of films which will enrich the social scene and something new for CAODS.

Unfortunately our planning application had one objection to it which was from Cowes Town Council. Isle of Wight Council however gave a far more considered decision by approving our application to brick up the windows on the north side of the theatre. We are now in the process of meeting builders to agree costs and plan the project.

Electricity

During a year the Theatre uses around 30,000 Kwh of electricity. In the last year this has cost almost £3,000. These are costs we would dearly like to reduce and recently we have negotiated a new supply contract for the coming year.

In addition, we need to avoid excess use of electricity. Recently there have been several instances of lights and equipment being left on when people leave the building. In light of this please adhere to the following rules.

1. If you turn it on, you are responsible for turning it off.
2. If you are the last person to leave the building, you must check that all lights are turned off.

If we all look out to not be wasteful with electricity it can only help with our level of running costs.

Thanks.

John

Centenary Celebration

2014 sees the centenary of Trinity Hall, now known as Trinity Theatre. It would be nice to put together an entertainment of some sort to celebrate the occasion. This could be a review, concert or anything else appropriate. We do need someone to come forward and coordinate this production so if you have some ideas and would like get involved please contact any committee member.

A Play by Richard Harris

Synopsis: A critical and popular success in London, this psychological thriller about revenge centres on the interlocking triangular relationship between Dee, a successful television playwright; Hallett, a detective superintendent; and Stone, a humourless, prissy man. Dee arrives at Stone's flat, having accepted an invitation to discuss a script by Stone's wife. She is rather surprised when Hallett, with whom she is having an affair, also arrives, apparently to investigate a matter concerning Stone's son and his involvement with a drug ring. But where are wife and son? After many twists and turns, Stone's intentions become clear as he slowly reveals the precise nature of the trio's relationship: all three are very much concerned with the business of murder and the play culminates in another perpetration of the crime.

"Welcome to a thriller that achieves it all. . . . Sensational." - London Times.

"The most ingenious murder mystery to have appeared on the London stage in a decade." - London Daily Mail.

The Business of Murder...

Cast: 2m, 1f could be played by most ages and mainly need to look right together on the stage.

All three cast have large parts with Stone being present in all scenes of the play, only leaving the stage for a short period.

Read-Through:

Thursday 5th September @ 7.30pm in the Clubroom

Auditions:

Wednesday 11th September @ 7.30pm in the Auditorium

Help Trinity Theatre

In last month's Stage Whisper I mentioned about making donations through the Localgiving website (localgiving.com) to help CAODS with the various projects we have going on. Any donation is welcome and they can be giftaided if you are a tax-payer. Regular donations can also be made.

From October 15th, donations of up to £10 will be matched so if you donate £10 we will get £20.

Thanks for your support.

Fundraising for the Theatre

The aim of Yellow Moon is to offer groups, schools and charities the chance to raise funds all year round without the usual hard work.

The website/catalogue sells arts and crafts materials, toys and games alongside party bag fillers and gifts to name but a few. All you need to do to earn money for the theatre is to quote the following source code when you order:

SOURCE CODE: WCA14192

If you order over the phone please quote the source code alongside “CAODS”.

We will be having hard copies of the catalogue down in the Theatre shortly.

The website is: www.yellowmoon.co.uk

TREASURER'S REPORT

Balances:

Current Account £5,247.32
Deposit Account £28,827.33

We have done well this month with “Local Giving” and now have £525.56 to our credit. Any small amount up to £10.00 will be matched by “Local Giving” next month, so please make a donation.

We have won another £25.00 Premium Bond - good old Ernie - they keep coming in albeit in small amounts.

We are now paid up to date for the Pole Dancing, we hired out the Theatre for a concert in Cowes Week, we have had another paranormal evening and have hired the Clubroom for a private function.

The keyboard keys have now been replaced after a horse fell on them during last year’s panto - perhaps the orchestra should be caged in, in case of falling animals.

I believe “Charlie & the Chocolate Factory” have given us £167.00 plus various subs, so all in all we have had a good month. Particular thanks to Alex and the Juniors for an excellent performance in the Clubroom.

Our next performance is “The Caucasian Chalk Circle” to be performed in September, so please do come along and support the cast and team for what will be an outstanding production.

Jane Maclean — Hon. Treasurer
