TRINITY THEATRE NEWSLETTER

President's Notes

Spring is definitely in the air, despite the gloomy weather. It hardly seems possible that only a couple of months ago the committee were sat pondering the fact that we had no shows in the calendar, and now we've completed one. Congratulations to everybody connected with 'Banged up!' and 'Who Calls?' - it was so nice to sit and watch a show without being backstage. You definitely get a better idea of what's going on from the front of the stage.

No sooner have the one act plays finished, and the set dismantled, the next TWO plays are going into rehearsals. Welcome to the new cast members who have not been with us before, hopefully it will be the first of many appearances at Trinity. Big thank you to everybody who helped or participated at the Spring Fayre, coming along and joining in is as important as setting it up, as without both parts it wouldn't have been as successful as it was. Of course huge thanks to Julia for organising the whole day, I thought the clubroom looked particularly colourful this year.

Hot of the press, I can reveal (well sort of hint at) that following a communication with the Literary Festival they are in fact hoping to use Trinity theatre again this year and considering us for a well known person, so watch this space.

I'm going to keep it short this month, and let Andy do his magic and send this out—sorry its late he was waiting for me again! Thank you all for being part of Trinity, it certainly feels like we're turning a corner, and if its only in my imagination and my passion hasn't helped, then think positive thoughts as the AGM is now only 2 months away!

Take care until next month, Mike

Treasurer's Report

Still quiet on the finance front with a little income from hirers. Expenditure has been more considerable with £2700 on annual insurance and several hundred pounds on licences for productions.

We are also expecting a very long overdue electricity bill which will be in excess of £1000 which will hopefully arrive before the end of our financial year (31st March).
