PRESIDENT'S REPORT FEBRUARY 2020

Hello again.

The months certainly whizz by! The theatre is very busy at the moment which is wonderful to see. "Wife After Death" is in full rehearsal - very funny - so I do hope you will be booking to see it. Bookings are open (March 27/28 and April 2/3/4). "Bugsy Malone's" rehearsals are also in full swing.

Gwen Stevens has had held two gatherings to introduce "The Shadow Factory" which she will be producing in July. Auditions are on Monday, February 24 at 7.30pm.

We had an outside booking from Suzanne's Dance School who gave two wonderful shows on 8 February. It is so encouraging to see so many people using the theatre and enjoying themselves.

We have a Robbie Williams Tribute show on Sunday March 1. Tickets are still available so come long for a good evening's entertainment.

In order to keep the theatre up to date in matters of Health & Safety we are holding a training evening with instruction for the IOW Ambulance Service on CPR and AED (defibrillator). This will be between 1 and 1.5 hours on Wednesday, April 8 at 7pm. The training is available for upto 12 people, so if you are interested, and it is a very worthwhile skill to have, please contact me on 291459 or 07876 021194 or twiga321@gmail.com. First come, first served.

On the subject of defibrillators, should the worse happen in the theatre, the nearest instruments are located at:

The Island Sailing Club

The Royal Yacht Squadron

The Royal London Yacht Club

No1, The Parade (this is the large block of flats at the bottom of the slope. It is located in the courtyard and the access code will be given when the telephone call to 999 is made)

As I am sure you are all aware, the theatre needs to replace the roof which is well over 100 years old. This is going to cost a whole lot of money and this is why we are asking for donations at every show and thru 'Just Giving'. It is very easy to donate (and we would appreciate any amount) - just go on line to Just Giving - Trinity Theatre and donate.

I am happy to report that we have found a Designated Premises Supervisor in Tracey Howard. Thank you Tracey. We still need chaperones to be registered and trained, so please contact Emma Jones on 07792 417567.

The next coffee morning is on March 7th : 10 - noon. Make it a date!! Until next time.

Dinah

Stage Whisper—Editorial

Trinity Theatre is a hub of activity at present with some fantastic CAODS productions and live tribute shows. The social calendar is pretty full as well, with something to suit everyone over the next few months.

== STOP PRESS == STOP PRESS == STOP PRESS ==

I am standing down from my role as editor of Stage Whisper to focus on my short story writing. Two years ago I stepped up to edit Stage Whisper with support from John Plumbley, and soon learnt the basics of Publisher. It is the ideal opportunity for someone who wants to develop their creative skills. If you are interested in the role of editor please contact Dinah Bowman.

The March issue will be my last as editor, so please show support for CAODS and step up if you are interested.

THE SHADOW FACTORIES

On July 23rd-26th we are putting on a production called The Shadow Factory.

It is all about the struggles of the people in wartime Southampton. It depicts their chaos and courage in times of hardship. It shows how the Ministry had to take over people premises to build the Spitfire anywhere they could, after the Supermarine factory was bombed. There is some exciting music and dancing so lots for chorus to do but also some lead roles for several people.

Auditions Mon 24th February 7.30pm.

The cast are :

Jackie Dimmock

Polly Stride

Lil Dimmock

Fred Dimmock

Mary 'Ma' Dimmock

Sylvia Meinster

Air Chief Marshall Sir Hugh Dowding

Lady Cooper

Lord 'Max' Beaverbrook

Len Gooch

And lots of chorus .

All ages will be considered singing ability is preferable but not essential to all the parts.

Thank you.
