Who's Who?

Do you have a photo of the inside or outside of the theatre to that we could use in the stage whisper?

It could be anything like, the theatre covered in snow, in glorious sunshine, an empty auditorium, the chairs in a different arrangement, or an interesting set? Sent us photos to the email account of the last page to remind us what the theatre looks like.

President's Report

Hi Everyone.

Welcome to Spring with many things beginning to open up! One of things we hope will be opening up is our theatre -apart from short periods in the middle of the year and just before Christmas - our theatre officially closed on 16 March 2020!

Another piece of good news is Luke and Brie Mulhern have a lovely son, George. Congratulations!

Picking up on points from the last Stage Whisper, I have not heard from anyone about events/happenings they would like to see or, more importantly, not see. Come on everyone - this is your theatre not mine!!! Also we are still looking for a volunteer to mow the lawn. Any offer would be most appreciative.

Fingers are still crossed that all our plans for theatre events will still come to happen. We will continue to take all the necessary Covid precautions and do hope that you will do so also so that you will be able to come and enjoy our productions.

Take care - not long now!

All the best, Dinah (07876021194 or 291459)

Panto 2021

10 miles to London and still no sign of Mr Whittington

So, restrictions are finally beginning to ease and hopefully we'll be able to enjoy being back on stage for the Pantomime this year.

So, let's give you a few details, the production team will be as follows:

John Abraham - Director and Choreographer

Nessa Law - Assistant Director and Dance Captain

Luke Mulhern - Musical Director

Stage Manager - Mike Buckett

So, let's give you some dates

Friday 9th July at 7:00pm - Talk through and information evening

Friday 16th July at 7:00pm – Auditions

Sunday 18th July - possible auditions if people can't make 16th

Panto 2021

We hope to be able to cast the pantomime and issue scripts, then give you August off for a staycation and to learn your lines etc and then start rehearsals as follows:

Tuesday 7th September - rehearsals start
Thursday 9th September - 2nd rehearsal

Then Tuesdays and Thursdays until first show week - rehearsals that week TBC

Performances:

Friday 4th December
Saturday 5th December
Sunday 6th December

Then

Friday 10th December
Saturday 11th December
Sunday 12th December

More to come next month on characters

Happy Easter to all

John

Poets Corner

This poem was inspired by the Queen's much publicized bout of gastro-enteritis, combined with one of the most controversial aspects of council cuts on the Isle of Wight.

ONE'S ROUGH GUTS by Steve Taverner

It's sad to hear our queen is ill, we wish her all the best.
I'm sure she'll soon get better with good medicine and rest,
But there's a silver lining to this cloud that hides the sun,
At least she wasn't in Ventnor when she felt the need to run.
For now that our conveniences have nearly all been shut,
She'd have a job to find a throne to park the royal butt!
She could go in a public house or café, so you'd think,
But she doesn't carry any cash to buy herself a drink.
So, like many older folk her majesty might fear
To visit us here on the isle where loos are seldom near.

Can you recognise these two characters?

Go to www.caods.org.uk/mugshots to separate them. The website has a few other well known characters together with a few less famous CAODS members.

If you fancy adding your mugshot to the rogues gallery, email your pic together with a few words – for example “Fred Blogs, official society lawn mower” to steve@dianakimpton.co.uk.
